

Midwest Fiber RECYCLING

1

2

3

Life Cycle of a Plastic Bottle~

Used plastic bottles are placed in a recycle bin, hauled to a recycling facility, processed and baled, transported to a manufacturer as a raw material, and then used to make new products!

FUN FACT:

Water and soda bottles are made from #1 PET (Polyethylene terephalate), which is globally recognized as a safe and recyclable packaging material.

5

4

